WHEAT POOL CANNOT FORCE DELIVERY UNDER CONTRACT

REGINA, Dec. 12.—An action for failing to deliver his wheat to the pool, against Leon Zarowatz, Southey, by the Saskatchewan Wheat Growers, was dismissed with costs by Mr. Justice J. P. Embury in the Court of King's Bench.

Allegations that the pool was a primary grain dealer, and could not carry on a business without first obtaining a license, were made by the defence; the contract also being declared in restraint of trade.

His Lordship, in a written judgment, finds that the pool comes within the definition of a primary grain dealer, the Canadian Grain Act requiring them to take out a license in ultra vires of the Dominion Parliament.

He was unable to say, however, whether the pool was operating against restraint of trade or not.

MEIGHEN SPEECH HAS DISTURBED CONSERVATIVES

Not Since 1921 General Election Have They Been So Stirred Up

OTTAWA, Dec. 11.—No political event since the federal general election of 1921 has so profoundly disturbed the Conservative party as Hon. Arthur Meighen's new notorious speech at Hamilton last month and its astounding reiteration in the Budget speech. It is the talk not only of this town but of Toronto and Montreal, and the more the talk the more it becomes clear that actual and serious damage has been done to Mr. Meighen's position as leader of his party.

At least one prominent Conservative organ, the Ottawa Journal, has been so indignant by the Hamilton performance that it has been unable to gather an enough to write anything about it, but it is known that its management is doing a lot of thinking.

Then, to make matters worse, C. H. Carter, M.P. of Montreal, recently elected for a Montreal seat, and who divorced Mr. Meighen in the general election, though elected to Montreal, went to Toronto this week and made a speech which was aimed to attack the line of Mr. Meighen's utterances. Again, for it has served only to intensify the dismay of Toronto Tories and at the same time to annoy some of his Montreal people.

Meighen in Deep.
In fact, Mr. Meighen and his party are in as deep as the Hamilton and Budget jumps that the more they now try to extricate themselves the farther down they sink. It would not be at all surprising if out of all this Conservative news a cry goes up from some lawbreaker, "Down with Meighen!"

Then there is just enough ammunition to make the situation more trouble some. Sir Henry Graydon has his eye on the leadership, and two western members—H. B. Bennett and Hon. "Doc" Hughes—have also in the mood to make considerable noise when it comes to talking about preference to the party. Altogether, the Conservative leadership just now is far from an enviable job and the trouble has not started.

MAY TAKE POPULAR VOTE ON IRISH BOUNDARY AGREEMENT SHORTLY

Such Action Will Happen Should 100,000 Free Staters Sign Petition Demanding a Referendum—Result Would Favor Agreement

Special Bulletin Cable—Copyright
LONDON, Dec. 11.—The Irish boundary agreement was approved by Dail today.

LONDON, Dec. 11.—It is authoritatively pointed out in London that though the Irish boundary agreement has been passed at Westminster, has received the Royal assent, and has been accepted by Ulster, and passed the second reading in the Free State Dail by 21 to 20, it is still possible that under the Free State constitution a popular vote will be necessary should 100,000 Free Staters sign a petition demanding a referendum. It was added that even if such delaying tactics were forced on the Congress government the final result would unquestionably be in favor of the agreement.
